Reports

Drinks US Bonded Inventory Management Reports

This application retains an independent log of all stock movements and transactions relevant to a Duty Free stockrooms. A log of key reference data changes is also retained.

The transaction log is used to report stock movements and tax liability values. The reference data log is used to provide an audit trail of file maintenance activity.

The reporting facilities described in this section are divided into two main areas.

- End of Day Report.
- Report Re-prints.

The necessary end of day transaction reports are all contained in one job submission process. These include listings of goods received, dispatched, duty liability and end of period returns.

Optional end of day reports may be requested to provide listings of key reference data changes and a control report of outstanding W81s.

The majority of the end of day reports are serially numbered. Re-prints for these numbered reports are easily obtained by quoting the original end of day report reference.

Duty Run

1... 2... 1/DNR

The Duty Run process provides a single batch job for the production of end of day movement and duty liability reports since the last Duty Run.

The reports produced are as follows:

- Adjustments / Breakages.
- Customer Duty and Duty Free Analysis.
- Movement Audit.
- Report of Dispatches.
- Report of Receipts.
- Customs Duty (C88A).

Duty Run Selection Screen

Select the Duty Run option.

Warning: The Duty Run process must be submitted and run when there is no stock movement activity. Also, the submission and runtime must coincide with the dates defined in the Customs and Excise calendars. For example, the period end Stock Returns are printed when the submission date is the same as the period end date defined in the Stock Return calendar.

This screen enables the submission of the end of day Duty Run reports.

This report, which can be run on a daily basis and then finally at the period end, summarizes, by Commodity Code, all Bond movements, according to the movement types with a closing Gallonage Volume for the period.

The movements are placed into appropriate columns according to indicators on the appropriate description entries:

- Delivery Types 'DTYP' and Adjustments 'ADJT' have a column number identified in the Limit Value.
- Receipt Reason Codes have a column number identified in the Rate field.

The report columns are as follows:

- 1 - Completion.
- 2 - Inventory Adjustments.
- 3 - Inter-Bond Shipments.
- 4 - Taxable Shipments.
- 5 - Other Tax removals.
- 6 - Inter-Bond Receipts.
- 7 - Re-processing.
- 8 - Destructures and Breakages.
- 9 - Export Shipments.

Sequenced by Commodity Code, a line is printed for each day in the month on which a movement occurred, showing the Gallonage moved in each of the above columns. On the 15th of the month, half-month totals are shown, and then monthly totals are shown at month end.

The Period End control indicator clears the balances for the period, retaining them as opening balances for the new period.
